West Virginia Namesakes

Landes

By R. K. Forster

Two postmarks, separated in time by over 21 years, and in space by an ocean and a continent, bridge the gap between a hamlet near North Mill Creek in Grant County and its namesake in southwestern France.

The Grant County community was formerly known as Gold Hill from the fool's gold—iron pyrites—found nearby in the 1860s. Later its post office was renamed Landes as a compliment to Mrs. A. S. Landes who held office as the community's postmaster.

Its counterpart in France is a village in the department of Charente-Maritime, a region flanked on its western reaches by the turbulent Bay of Biscay, and famous for wine, wheat, orchards and pilchards.

The district is mainly flat, especially toward the coast and this may suggest a link with the name.

The French word 'lande' indicates a heath, or sandy moor. One wonders whether the husband of West Virginia's Mrs. A. S. Landes had ties with France in his distant ancestry?

The recent postmark from Landes, France, incorporates the date in European-style numerals, indicating March 16, 1973.

Children of John:

(1850 census) - Abraham - Martin - John - Joseph - Rebecca -
Samuel - We believe, in addition to the above - were older children -
Jesse - Jackson - Daniel - Jacob - Sarah - Mary and Hannah!

We have yet to prove the last 7 children named.

In this booklet we have included the family of Jesse and Jackson
Landes.

Can anyone prove or disprove them?

We have found a Daniel - a Sarah and a Jacob in Indiana - who sound very promising -- of Mary and Hannah - nothing.

We would appreciate any additions or corrections.

Information is available regarding the 15 other children of Jacob Landes.

There are discrepancies in the name Emily Susan Landes. This name was used on the 1880 census under Jesse and Christina Landes' family. Her grandchildren called her Emma and on the death records it is written Emma G. In the Alt and Kimble History book it is written as Susan. Emma Grave information was done by Jesse Coio but it is my belief that Emily Susan is the real correct name.

OBITUARY OF MRS. ROSETTA LANDIS RUNK

Mrs. Rosetta Landis Runk, M.D. for 21 years head of the Department of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology at the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital, died Monday at the sanitarium after an illness of six months. Dr. Runk who retired from active practice at the sanitarium two years ago lived at 301 Lincoln Park, Maryland. She had been associated with the institution since coming here in 1926. Born in Brushy Run, W. Virginia, she studied nursing at Battle Creek, Michigan and received her medical education at American Medical Missionary College, Battle Creek. She was graduated in 1906 and a year later was married to Dr. George Runk, a classmate in the college. Later she studied diseases of the eyes, ears and throat in Vienna, Austria. Dr. Runk and her husband taught at Emmanuel's Missionary College, Berrien Springs, Michigan and later at the Seventh-Day Adventist Sanitarium and hospital in Madison, Wisconsin. After her husband's death in 1910, Dr. Runk returned to practice at the Battle Creek Sanitarium. Dr. Runk had been active in Seventh-Day Adventist Church work all of her life. She was a member of the Sligo Seventh-Day Adventist Church, Takoma Park, Maryland. A brother J. W. Riggleman of Akron, Ohio, two nephews and several cousins, including Miss Zella Landis of Bethesda, Maryland survive her. Her burial was at George Washington Memorial Cemetery, Hyattsville, Maryland.

Jefferson Township, where the father died about 1876. His widow still survives, and is yet living on the old homestead in Jefferson Township. J. R. Brubaker, the subject of this sketch, was reared to manhood in Ohio, and at the age of eighteen years began to learn the milling trade, which he followed until he volunteered in defense of the Union. He enlisted in Company D, Eleventh Ohio Infantry, his regiment being mustered for three months. After his discharge he re-enlisted in Company D, Sixty-ninth Ohio Infantry, and after two years service he re-enlisted as a veteran, his entire term of service covering four years and six months. Among other battles he participated in the battle of Nashville, in December, 1864, when the Union army under General Thomas so completely annihilated Hood's army. After the war he returned to Ohio, and resumed work at his trade. June 10, 1866, he was married in Darke County, Ohio, to Miss Sally E. Mundhank, who was born in that county, a daughter of Daniel and Elsie Mundhank. After the death of his first wife Mr. Brubaker married Miss Minerva Counterman, who is also deceased. She was a daughter of David Counterman, of Mercer County, Ohio. Of the five children born to his first marriage, four are living—Eva, Luella, Jessie and Hazel. Augustus, the first born, died in infancy. By his second marriage he had one daughter. In 1869 Mr. Brubaker came to Jay County, Indiana, and in partnership with his brother bought the steam flouring mill at Mount Pleasant, which they sold out a few years later, after which J. R. was engaged in dealing in general stock for two years. In 1881 Mr. Brubaker engaged in the general mercantile business at Mount Pleasant, his first partner being P. K. Craig. He has been associated with different parties in business, but since 1884 has conducted his business alone, in which he is meeting with fair success. In connection with his business he is also deputy postmaster of the village. Politically Mr. Brubaker affiliates with the Republican party.

SAMUEL S. LANDES, farmer, section 10, Greene Township, has been a resident of Jay County, and Greene Township, since October 15, 1875. He was born in Hardy County, West Virginia, January 22, 1841, a son of John and Catharine (Buckley) Landes, natives also of Hardy County, where they died, the father in 1872, and the mother in 1877. Samuel S. Landes was reared a farmer and has always followed that vocation. He was well educated, attending school several terms in Clarke County, Ohio, and when a young man taught for some time in his native county. Of loyal descent, when the war broke out Mr. Landes was a strong Union man, but was pressed into the Confederate ranks, from which he thought it no dishonor to escape after twelve days of involuntary service. He then left his native county and settled in Greene County, Ohio, where he remained a short time. He was married in Fayette County, Ohio, February 18, 1863, to Hannah Susan Stonestreet, who was born in Pendleton County, West Virginia, October 29, 1842, a daughter of Elijah and Elizabeth (Miller) Stonestreet. In 1865 Mr. Landes moved to Indiana and lived in Randolph County until his removal to Jay County, in 1875. He owns a good farm of eighty acres on section 10, Greene Township, which he bought in 1883. It is one of the best farms in the township, and his improvements are all comfortable and commodious. Mr. and Mrs. Landes have had a family of ten children—Louis G. (died aged two months), Marion W. (a school teacher in West Virginia), Effie Jane, Rebecca C., Abraham R., Hester E., Cora Bell, Charles (died aged two years), Samuel O. and Rosa C. In politics Mr. Landes is a Republican. He has served his township two terms as assessor. He is a member of the Odd Fellows order, both lodge and encampment.

DAVID A. ANTLES, one of the leading citizens of Bear Creek Township, was born in Wayne County, Ohio, July 22, 1830, son of Joseph and Mary (Hough) Antles. His father was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, August 1, 1810, son of David and Elizabeth (McCullough) Antles. His family removed to Wayne County when Joseph was eight years of age. Joseph was married October 12, 1829, to Miss Mary Hough, who was born in Union County, Pennsylvania, January 20, 1812, daughter of David and Elizabeth (Byron) Hough. In June, 1841, Joseph Antles and family came to Jay County. His family then consisted of wife and five children. He brought two yoke of oxen, a wagon, and two cows. He bought eighty acres of land on section 23, Bear Creek Township, of Isaac Votaw, and built a log cabin 18 x 20 feet, with clapboard roof and puncheon floor. With the assistance of his sons he cleared and improved a good farm. The parents had ten children--David, Elizabeth, Nancy, Sarah Jane, and Isaac, were born in Wayne County, Ohio; Fidelia, Dennis, Joseph, H. and C., twins, were born in this county. The father died March 17, 1852, and the mother about twelve years afterward. The subject of this sketch was eleven years old when his parents came to this county. His youth was spent at farm work and in attending the common schools. He was married April 7, 1850, to Rebecca Ann Stanley, daughter of Thomas C. Stanley, a pioneer of this county. Mr. Antles located on section 22, where he lived until he bought eighty acres of land on the same section. Ten years later he removed to section 27, and in 1871, came to his present farm. He first bought 200 acres, which he improved and divided among his sons. He now owns 100 acres, in a good state of cultivation. Their children are--Alfred A., Frank, Mary Ellen and Fred-eric Morton. Six died in infancy, and Rose Emily, wife of Samuel Staley, died at the age of twenty-five years. Mr. Antles is a Republican in politics, and served creditably as justice of the peace. He is a member of the Baptist church.

ARON L. SOMERS, deceased, was born in Gloucester County, New Jersey, December 9, 1826, a son of Elwood and Eliza (Richards) Somers. When a child he was taken by his parents to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, thence to Warren County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. In early manhood he came to Jay County, Indiana, where he was married October 25, 1857, to Margaret L. Field, a native of Pickaway County, Ohio, and a daughter of Jonathan Field, one of the early settlers of Jay County, where he still makes his home. They lived on rented land for two years after their marriage, then removed to a farm of 120 acres of unimproved land on section 20, Penn Township, which he had previously purchased. He began clearing his land making improvements on it, and there followed farming until he enlisted in the war of the Rebellion in December, 1863. He was a member of Company B, Eleventh Indiana Cavalry, and served principally in Alabama. While going to
